Victor Harrison Resigns as Executive Secretary of the Virginia Racing Commission

New Kent, VA (October 26, 2010) – The Virginia Racing Commission today announced that Executive Secretary Victor I. Harrison resigned his position, effective November 1, 2010. Mr. Harrison has accepted a position with Penn National Gaming and will be managing one of its racing facilities in Florida.

The Commission plans to undertake a national search for Mr. Harrison's successor. VRC Chairman Peter Burnett announced today at its monthly meeting that David S. Lermond, Jr., will serve as acting Executive Secretary.
